

Introducing Myself and My Ikigai

My name is Mariana Santana Huertas, I was born on June 11, 2002; so currently I'm 18 years old. I live in San Lorenzo, Puerto Rico since I was born, all my life I grew up having almost all kind of animals, because I live in a rural area, but not like you usually expect. One of my goals in life is to be an Air Traffic Controller, that's why I decide to enter the program Business Administration with a concentration in International Trade. The things that I most love in my life is when I get to spend time with my friends and family; my family is just a bit crazy, and when you get to know me you will realize that I am too. I really enjoy traveling even when I'm alone, its really nice to meet new people, but not because I want it, is because I need it. My expectations for this English class are to improve my writing skills and my pronunciation.

Making my Ikigai I realize that I don't think too much of those things. When I began to fill in the spaces in the center, I began to think seriously, what mission is it that I really have to fulfill in this world? I understand that some people have already been able to answer that question, but I think that I'm not ready yet. In this world we need more people who work with passion, it doesn't matter where you work, what matters is that it makes you happy. What I most love about myself is that no matter in what mood I am, I will always try to make you feel good. If you need to talk and whenever you need my advices, I'll be here. You can count on me for everything that includes parties, talking, even just for a walk.
